

POLLUX +SW

POLLUX + SW in brushed bronze

POLLUX, elegant light to be placed on a wall

Impressive because of its size but also because of the subtle mobility of its arms and its dome

The dome can be rotated 360° on its axis and moved 90°

Very decorative wall light but also very practical for lighting an isolated table

On request, it is possible to connect an electrical cord to an external connection

This wall light is available with a switch
